Summary:

On 01-07-12 at approximately 6:40 pm, Carlsbad Police Officers were dispatched to El Camino Real north of La Costa Ave. to investigate a traffic collision.

On arrival, the Officers along with Carlsbad Fire Department Paramedics found a badly injured male lying in the north bound traffic lanes of El Camino Real. Lifesaving efforts were unsuccessful and the subject was pronounced deceased at the scene.

Initial information suggests that the deceased male was crossing El Camino Real, mid-block, on foot. The pedestrian was struck by a motorcycle being ridden north on El Camino Real. The motorcyclist was able to maintain control of the motorcycle and rode it out of the traffic lanes without further collision. The motorcyclist appeared to be uninjured.

The Carlsbad Police Department's Traffic Division assumed command of the investigation.

No identities had been confirmed at the time of this release.
